DEPARTMENT OF LABOUR.

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

"FEMALE MINIMUM WAGE ACT."

ORDER No. 4.

Order governing Office Occupation.

PURSUANT to sections 4 and 13 of the "Female Minimum Wage Act," being chapter 48 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1934, the Board of Industrial Relations hereby orders:—

1. That where used in this Order the expression "office occupation" includes the work of females employed as stenographers; book-keepers; typists; billing clerks; filing clerks; cashiers; cash-girls (not included in other Orders); checkers; invoicers; comptometer operators; auditors; attendants in physicians' offices, dentists' offices, and other offices; and all kinds of clerical help.

2. That, subject to the other provisions of this Order, the minimum wage for every female employee eighteen years of age or over that age in the office occupation (except women to whom special licences are issued under section 6 of the said Act) shall be $15 a week of forty-eight hours, or 31¼ cents per hour.

3. The minimum wage for every girl under eighteen years of age in the office occupation shall be as follows:—

$11 a week during the first six months' employment in such occupation.

$12 a week during the second six months' employment in such occupation.

$13 a week during the third six months' employment in such occupation.

$14 a week during the fourth six months' employment in such occupation.

$15 a week of forty-eight hours, or 31¼ cents per hour thereafter.

4. The minimum wage for every female apprentice eighteen years of age or over that age in the office occupation shall be as follows:—

$11 a week during the first three months' employment in such occupation.

$12 a week during the second three months' employment in such occupation.

$13 a week during the third three months' employment in such occupation.

$14 a week during the fourth three months' employment in such occupation.

$15 a week of forty-eight hours, or 31¼ cents per hour thereafter.

5. Licences must be obtained from the Board before such female apprentices eighteen years of age or over that age may be employed at the rates set forth in section 4 of this Order. Application forms for such licences may be obtained from the Board, Parliament Buildings, Victoria, B.C.

6. No woman or girl shall be employed in the office occupation for a greater number of hours than forty-eight in any one week unless a special permit in writing has been obtained from the Chairman or Secretary of the Board.

7. Every woman or girl employed for a greater number of hours than forty-eight in any one week shall be paid pro rata for such excess time according to the legal rate to which she is entitled as provided by sections 2, 3, or 4 of this Order.

8. Every woman or girl employed for a lesser number of hours than forty-eight in any one week may be paid pro rata for such time according to the legal rate to which she is entitled as provided by sections 2, 3, or 4 of this Order.

9. This Order shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette on the 10th day of May, 1934, and shall take effect at the expiration of fourteen days thereafter, and shall be in substitution for the Order of the Minimum Wage Board governing the Office Occupation published in the British Columbia Gazette on the 17th day of July, 1919, which is hereby rescinded.

Dated at Victoria, B.C., this 2nd day of May, 1934.

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

"FEMALE MINIMUM WAGE ACT."

ORDER No. 5.

Order governing Public Housekeeping Occupation.

PURSUANT to sections 4 and 13 of the "Female Minimum Wage Act," being chapter 48 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1934, the Board of Industrial Relations hereby orders:—

1. That where used in this Order the expression "public housekeeping occupation" includes the work of waitresses, attendants, housekeepers, cooks, and kitchen-help in restaurants, hotels, tea-rooms, ice-cream parlours, light-lunch stands, and other places where food is cooked, prepared, and served for which a charge is made; and the work of chambermaids in hotels, lodging-houses, and apartments where lodging is furnished, whether or not such establishments are operated independently or in connection with any other business; and the work of all female elevator operators and janitresses.

2. That, subject to the other provisions of this Order, the minimum wage for every female employee eighteen years of age or over that age in the public housekeeping occupation (except women to whom a special licence is issued under section 6 of the said Act) shall be $14 a week of forty-eight hours, or 29⅙ cents per hour:

Provided that when lodging is furnished by the employer to any employee as part payment of the wages of said employee, not more than $3 a week may be deducted from the weekly wage of such employee for a full week's lodging of seven days:

And, further, that when board or meals are furnished by the employer to any employee as part payment of the wages of such employee, not more than $5.25 a week may be deducted from the weekly wage of such employee for a full week's board of twenty-one meals. A fraction of a week's board shall be computed upon a proportional basis.

3. That the minimum wage for every girl under eighteen years of age employed in the public housekeeping occupation shall be $12 a week of forty-eight hours:

Provided that when lodging is furnished by the employer to any girl under the age of eighteen years as part payment of the wages of such girl, not more than $3 a week may be deducted from the weekly wage of such girl for a full week's lodging of seven days:

And, further, that when board or meals are furnished by the employer to any girl under the age of eighteen years as part payment of the wages of such girl, not more than $5.25 a week may be deducted from the weekly wage of such girl for a full week's board of twenty-one meals. A fraction of a week's board shall be computed upon a proportional basis.

4. The minimum wage for every female apprentice eighteen years of age or over that age in the public housekeeping occupation shall be $12 a week of forty-eight hours during the first three months' employment in such occupation:

Provided that when lodging is furnished by the employer to any apprentice as part payment of the wages of said apprentice, not more than $3 a week may be deducted from the weekly wage of such apprentice for a full week's lodging of seven days:

And, further, that when board or meals are furnished by the employer to any apprentice as part payment of the wages of such apprentice, not more than $5.25 a week may be deducted from the weekly wage of such employee for a full week's board of twenty-one meals. A fraction of a week's board shall be computed upon a proportional basis.

5. Licences must be obtained from the Board before such female apprentices eighteen years of age or over that age may be employed at the rate set forth in section 4 of this Order. Application forms for such licences may be obtained from the Board, Parliament Buildings, Victoria, B.C.

6. No woman or girl shall be employed in the public housekeeping occupation for a greater number of hours than forty-eight in any one week, except in cases of emergency, when fifty-two hours a week may be worked.

7. Every woman or girl employed for a greater number of hours than forty-eight in any one week shall be paid at the rate of time and one-half for such excess time according to the legal rate to which she is entitled by sections 2, 3, or 4 of this Order.

8. Every woman or girl employed for a lesser number of hours than forty-eight in any one week may be paid pro rata for such time according to the legal rate to which she is entitled as provided by sections 2, 3, or 4 of this Order.

9. This Order shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette on the 10th day of May, 1934, and shall take effect at the expiration of fourteen days thereafter, and shall be in substitution for the Order of the Minimum Wage Board governing the Public Housekeeping Occupation published in the British Columbia Gazette on the 17th day of July, 1919, which is hereby rescinded.

(e.) To carry on the business of manufacturers' agents, real-estate, insurance, and estate brokers and agents, and a general agency and general brokerage business and all branches thereof:

(f.) To acquire and take over by purchase or otherwise in any way whatsoever all or any part of the stock-in-trade, plant, leases, licences, and all other goods and chattels, personal property and real property and assets of any person, firm, or corporation, or of any business whatsoever and wheresoever carried on, or which may at any time be carried on, either subject to the whole or part of the liabilities thereof respectively or otherwise as may be agreed, and in either or any of the above cases, and in the case of any debt or account owing or payable by the Company at any time to any person, firm, or corporation (including any shareholder or director of the Company), and (or) in the case of any liability, obligation, or contract for or in respect of which the Company is or is about to become liable, to pay for, satisfy, or discharge the same either in money or debentures or bonds or shares of the Company, or partly in money and partly in shares or bonds or debentures of the Company, or partly in money and partly in shares and partly in bonds or debentures of the Company, or partly in shares and partly in bonds or debentures of the Company; said shares in any or either case to be either partly or fully paid up; such debentures to be secured either by a charge on or a deposit of any part or all of the Company's property of any kind whatsoever, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, or without such charge:

(g.) To carry on business of general merchants and dealers in all manufactured goods, materials, provisions, and produce whatsoever:

(h.) To purchase, buy, lease, apply to purchase, or in any other way whatsoever acquire real property, lands, tenements and hereditaments of any tenure and of all kinds and descriptions and any interest therein; and to hold, deal in, manage, subdivide, lay out, improve, lay out for building purposes, build buildings and improvements of any and all kinds upon, to rent, lease, mortgage, or otherwise encumber, exchange, hypothecate, sell, or in any other way dispose of the same or any part thereof or interest therein; and to purchase, buy, lease, apply to purchase, or in any other way whatsoever to acquire personal property of any and all kinds and descriptions and any interest therein, and to hold, deal in, manage, improve, rent, lease, mortgage, or otherwise encumber, exchange, hypothecate, sell, or in any other way dispose of the same or any part thereof or any interest therein:

(i.) To acquire, purchase, exchange, hold, take mortgages and securities on, manage, improve, develop, cultivate, deal in, sell, mortgage, hypothecate, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of land, timber limits, leases, or rights, mineral claims, water-powers, rights, grants, franchises, and privileges, and real and personal property of every nature and description and any and all interest therein, choses in action and negotiable instruments, upon such terms as the Company may think proper:

(j.) To carry on any and all lines of business as manufacturers, producers, dealers, merchants, importers, and exporters, generally without limitation as to class of products and merchandise, and to manufacture, produce, adapt, prepare, buy, sell, and otherwise deal in any materials, articles, or things required in connection with or incidental to such business:

(k.) To carry on the business of storage, wharfage, warehousing, and forwarding, and the doing of every act or acts, thing or things incidental or growing out of or connected with said business; the issue of storage and warehouse receipts, negotiable and non-negotiable, covering all kinds of goods, wares, and merchandise; the collection and receipt of storage dues and other compensation:

(l.) To apply for any Acts, Orders in Council, certificates, licences, or any other powers or authorities which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects or otherwise in the interests of the Company, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(m.) To amalgamate with any person or persons or any company established for objects altogether or in part similar to the objects of this Company or otherwise, and for such consideration, either in shares or debentures of another company or cash, as the Company may think fit; and to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(n.) To guarantee and become surety for the performance of any contract, obligation, or undertaking made or to be made by any person, firm, or corporation whatsoever, and to secure the performance thereof by mortgage or charge on all or any of the property or assets of the Company, including its unpaid or uncalled capital for the time being, or in any other manner whatsoever; provided that nothing herein contained shall confer on the Company the powers of an insurance company within the meaning of the "Insurance Act":

(o.) To secure the fulfilment of any contracts or engagements entered into by the Company by mortgage or charge on all or any of the property of the Company and its unpaid or uncalled capital for the time being or in any other manner whatsoever:

(p.) To register or license the Company in any of the Provinces of Canada or elsewhere in the British Empire, and to do all necessary things in that behalf:

(q.) To lend money on any terms that may be thought fit, and particularly to persons having dealings with the Company:

(r.) To build, purchase, lease, hire, charter, navigate, use, and operate motor-cars, motor-trucks, cars, wagons, and other vehicles, and boats, ships, and other vessels:

(s.) To develop or acquire by lease, purchase, or otherwise steam, electric, pneumatic, hydraulic, or other power or force, and to use, sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the same:

(t.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, or otherwise, and hold, mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, mining lands, prospects, licences, and mining rights of every description, and to work, develop, operate, turn to account, sell, or otherwise dispose thereof:

(u.) To dig, drill, or bore for, raise, crush, wash, smelt, reduce refine, amalgamate, assay, analyse, and otherwise treat gold, silver, copper, lead, iron, coal, petroleum, natural gas, and any other ore, deposit, metal, or mineral whatsoever, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to buy, sell, and deal in the same or any product thereof:

(v.) To engage in any branch of mining, smelting, milling, and refining minerals:

(w.) And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere, and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be independent main objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company:

(x.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purpose of this Association, or carrying on any business which this Association is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Association calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Association, and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of this Association:

(n.) To enter into co-operative marketing contracts:

(o.) To contract with any association or associations, company or companies which may be a member of this Association, whereby any such member association or member company shall bind itself to purchase all its requirements from this Association, and to offer all the produce, products, goods, chattels, and commodities which such member association or member company shall own or control to this Association before offering the same for sale elsewhere:

(p.) To make arrangements with persons engaged in any trade, business, or profession, and others, for the concession to the Association and (or) to the Association's members, ticket-holders, and others of any special rights, privileges, and advantages, and in particular in regard to the supply of goods:

(q.) To do all such things and to carry on such businesses as this Association may think are incidental and conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(r.) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise:

(s.) And it is hereby declared that each paragraph hereof shall be interpreted as a separate power, and shall not be limited or restricted in anywise by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph.

To carry on the business of foresters, timber merchants, sawmill and planing-mill proprietors, and timbermen in all or any of its branches, producers, manufacturers of and dealers in wood-pulp, and makers of and dealers in paper of all kinds, and articles made from paper or pulp and materials used in the manufacture or treatment of paper, including cardboard and millboard, and to buy, sell, prepare for market, manipulate, export, import, and deal in sawlogs, timber, lumber, and woods of all kinds, and to manufacture and deal in articles of all kinds in the manufacture of which timber is used or forms a component part:

(c.) To purchase, acquire by record, take on lease or licence, exchange, or otherwise acquire, deal with, use, or dispose of water rights, water records, water-powers, water privileges, and such other rights, privileges, and franchises as the Company may think fit, and to render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by the construction, erection, maintenance, and operation of any work or works necessary therefor, and by diverting the water of any stream, pond, or lake into any channel or channels:

(d.) To import, export, manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in forest products, goods, wares, and merchandise:

(e.) To carry on the business of manufacturers' agents or representatives, and to act in the capacity of agents for manufacturers for any of the purposes hereinafter enumerated as part of the objects:

(f.) To carry on any and all lines of business as hotelkeepers, lodging-house keepers, storekeepers, manufacturers, producers, merchants, wholesale and retail, importers, exporters, generally without limitation as to class of products and merchandise, and to manufacture, produce, adapt, prepare, buy, sell, and otherwise deal in any materials, articles, or things required in connection with or incidental to such business for the purpose of investigating, purchasing, promoting, organizing, reorganizing, developing, controlling, carrying on, and disposing of industries or business:

(g.) To build, acquire, own, charter, navigate, manage, and use steam and other vessels, and to carry on the business of towing, freighting, and of carriers by land and water, scow-owners, barge-owners, dredge-owners, shipping and forwarding agents, warehousemen and wharfingers:

(h.) To purchase, take in exchange, lease, or otherwise acquire, sell, mortgage, manage, use, improve, turn to account, dispose of, or otherwise deal in any real or personal property, securities, and any rights or privileges appertaining thereto which the Company may deem to be necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business or otherwise, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, tools and implements, and stock-in-trade:

(i.) To enter into partnership or any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to lend money to, and subject to the "Insurance Act," guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, or of any customer, and to take or otherwise acquire securities of any such person, company, or customer, or shares of such company, and to sell, hold, or reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(j.) To sell, exchange, lease, mortgage, or otherwise deal with lands, rights, or other property or effects of the Company or any part thereof of any kind or nature whatsoever, or the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof, either to individual persons or companies, with power to accept shares or debentures in other companies, and (in the case of shares) either wholly or partly paid up, as consideration for the above, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of such debentures and shares as may be deemed most expedient, and, subject to the "Insurance Act," to guarantee the repayment thereof or the payment of interest thereon:

(k.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, liabilities, and undertaking of any person, corporation, or company carrying on or entitled to carry on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or which may be carried on so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit the Company, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(l.) To amalgamate with any person or persons or any company established for objects altogether or in part similar to the objects of the Company or otherwise, and for such consideration, either in shares or debentures of another company or cash, as the Company may see fit; to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit the Company:

(m.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property, rights, and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company.

(n.) And to distribute among the members of the Company in kind any assets, shares, debentures, debenture stock, or securities or any other assets of the Company, or of which the Company may have the power of disposing.

(o.) To subscribe for, purchase, or otherwise acquire and hold shares or other interests in or securities of any other company having objects together or in part similar to those of the Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(p.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company in such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(q.) To lend and advance money or give credit to persons or companies and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and, subject to the "Insurance Act," to guarantee or become security for the performance of contracts by members of the Company or persons having dealings with the Company:

(r.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (Federal, Provincial, municipal, or otherwise) or any corporation, company, or persons that may seem beneficial to the Company's objects.

(s.) To borrow, raise, or secure money (with or without powers of sale or other special conditions) by a charge on or deposit of any part of the Company's property of any kind whatsoever; to draw, make, accept, endorse, issue, execute, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, and other negotiable instruments; and to borrow or raise money on or by the issuance or execution of bonds, mortgages, or debentures (charged upon all or any part of the Company's property, both present and future, and including its uncalled capital), or acceptances, endorsements, or promissory notes of the Company, and other negotiable instruments:

(t.) To improve, manage, cultivate, develop, use, exchange, let or lease, mortgage, sell, dispose of, turn to account, grant rights and privileges, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(u.) To remunerate any person, director, shareholder, firm, or company rendering services to the Company, whether by cash payment or by allotment to him or them of shares or securities in the Company credited as paid up in full or in part or otherwise:

(v.) To do all or any of the above things either alone or in connection with others, and either as principal or agent, and either by itself or by sub-contractors, agents, employees, servants, or otherwise, and either in the Province of British Columbia, Canada, or elsewhere, as may be determined by the Company:

(w.) To register the Company in Canada or elsewhere, and to obtain any Act of Parliament or law, ordinance, or order of any foreign Legislature or Government for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect:

(x.) To enter into contracts for the allotment of shares of the Company as fully paid or partially paid up as to the whole or part of the purchase price of any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for agencies to be transferred to the Company, or any services or advantage to the Company, or for any valuable consideration, and to remunerate by the issue of fully or partially paid-up shares or otherwise any person or company for services rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in the conduct of its business, or in procuring the Company to be incorporated, or for any valuable consideration as may from time to time be determined:

(y.) To insure any property of the Company:

(z.) To insure the life of any director or member of the Company in any insurance company in such manner as and when the directors shall think fit, and to pay the insurance premiums thereon, and whether such insurance policy shall be payable to the Company or shall be payable otherwise:

(aa.) To grant pensions and allowances and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or, subject to the "Insurance Act," guarantee or give money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or private or useful object:

(bb.) To remunerate any employee of the Company in whole or in part by means of a share of the profits of the Company, or by remuneration varying with the profits earned or the dividends declared, or with the output or turnover of the Company, or with the results obtained by any employee of the Company for the benefit of the Company, and such remuneration may be in addition to the ordinary remuneration of such employee, and may be either in cash or by way of allotment of shares fully or partly paid, as the directors shall think fit:

(cc.) The directors may establish such scheme or schemes, arrangement or arrangements for remuneration of employees in manner aforesaid as the directors may in their absolute discretion think fit; and the directors may from time to time vary any such scheme or schemes, arrangement or arrangements, and may attach to any shares allotted to employees such special rights, privileges, conditions, or restrictions as they shall think fit. The term "employee" as herein used shall be deemed to include any person paid by the Company for his or her services to the Company, or who renders services to the Company for which the directors consider such person should be paid, and a director of the Company who may be an employee of the Company within the meaning of the term herein used shall not be barred from the benefit of the provisions herein by reason of his being a director:

(dd.) To do all such acts and things as are necessary, incidental, or conducive to the attainment of the objects of the Company or any or all of them, or which may tend, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company in any of its objects:

(ee.) And it is hereby declared that in the interpretation of these objects the meaning of any of the Company's objects as expressed shall not be restricted by reference to any other object, or by the juxtaposition of two or more objects, and that in the event of any ambiguity the clauses herein shall be construed in such a way as to widen and not to restrict the powers of the Company.

NOTICE.

In the Matter of the "Barkerville Townsite Titles Investigation Act."

NOTICE is hereby given, pursuant to the "Barkerville Townsite Titles Investigation Act," that an inquiry will be conducted by the undersigned at Barkerville, B.C., commencing on Thursday, the 14th day of June, 1934, at 10 a.m., for the investigation and adjudication upon any claim of any person of any estate or interest in any of the lands comprised in the plan of the resurvey of the Townsite of Barkerville, filed in the Land Registry Office at Kamloops under No. 2381.

Any person desiring to claim any estate or interest in any land comprised in Plan No. 2381 shall, not less than fourteen days prior to the 14th day of June, deliver or cause to be delivered to the undersigned at Victoria, by mail or otherwise, a petition setting forth the title of the claimant and a concise statement of the relevant facts established by the documentary evidence accompanying the petition, and of such facts as do not appear in the documentary evidence and are necessary to make out the title. The petition shall be accompanied by:—

(a.) The title deeds (if any) and any other documentary evidence of title relating to the land that are in the possession or control of the applicant.

(b.) A certified copy of all recorded instruments affecting the land (if any).

(c.) A certificate from the Registrar of the Kamloops Land Registration District as to any charges, liens, judgments, or lis pendens which have been registered in his office against the land (if any).

(d.) Evidence of any facts that are required to be proved in order to make out the title and which are not established by documentary evidence.

(e.) An affidavit of the claimant whose title is to be investigated, verifying the petition, which shall state that to the best of the claimant's knowledge and belief he is the owner of the estate or interest (whatever it is) which is claimed by the petition, subject only (if such is the case) to the charges and encumbrances set forth in the petition or in the schedule thereto, or that there is no charge or encumbrance affecting the land; that the deeds and evidences of title which he produces are all the title deeds and evidences of title relating to the land that are in his possession or power; that he is not aware of any claim, adverse or inconsistent with his own, except such adverse or inconsistent claims (if any) as are set forth in detail in the affidavit; and the affidavit shall also set forth whether or not any one is in possession of the land, and under what claim, right, or title; and shall state that to the best of the claimant's knowledge, information, and belief the affidavit and other papers accompanying the petition fully and fairly disclose all facts material to the title claimed by him, and all contracts and dealings which affect the same, or any part thereof, or give any right as against the claimant.

(f.) The payment of an application fee of $5.

(g.) A deposit of $10, to be applicable in lieu of a Crown-grant fee in case a declaration of title is made in favour of the claimant, which fee will be refunded to the applicant in case no declaration of title is made.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill:
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

473-my1 W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL.
